

Command Staff Training for Law Enforcement

This 2.5-day (24 hours) Command Staff agency level certification program is designed to unite the communication needed between the line officers, first line supervisors, and the command administration for selection of personnel, equipment, munitions lists, and training needed to respond to riot environments that occur within or outside of a jurisdiction. Focus is on department liability, use of force issues, establishing proper reporting procedures, and training standards needed for this response. We will address and demonstrate the need for a Chain of Command, Emergency Preparedness Officer and Crisis Emergency Committee within the department to help protect departments from costly litigation issues. This is an important need for any Command Staff Personnel.

Topics covered in the program include:

- Importance of selecting equipment lists
- Review of personnel
- Liability in establishing pre-screening tests
- Policies and procedure review
- Failure to train court cases
