FORCE PROTECTION FIREARM SURVIVAL TRAINING - MCP

This 1 day (8 hours) basic certification course and 5 days (40 hours) basic Instructor certification program is designed for Force Protection Teams to train and certify their soldiers in critical life-saving situations where the soldier is out of reach to physically disarm the subject but needs to execute tactics to save either their own life or the lives of others using a handgun or other weapons of opportunity. This course is designed to enhance instructor's development in firearm tactics, unorthodox drawing techniques, and shadowing tactics and advanced movement methods for engaging a threat(s) within 10 feet. Enforcing contact cover principals, team tactics and strategies, high risk threats, spontaneous lethal force encounters and ambushes. This course will also address weapon transition skills, Soldier rescue tactics and immediate action to a gunfight. Instruction is based on realistic use and applications of control methods in the use of force situations. This class will conduct dry fire drills, training projectiles (Air Soft) simulations, and live fire exercises.

Topics covered in the program include:
