

ARMA TRAINING

www.armatraining.com

NECK COMPRESSION TACTICS - MCP

This 1 day soldier basic certification program and 5 days (40 hours) soldier basic instructor certification program designed for Force Protection Teams to train certify their soldiers to update, train and certify their soldiers in the safe and effective applications and use of Neck Compression Tactics for situations when the soldier is confronted with a deadly force encounters and other force options have failed or are not readily available. This course is designed to enhance the instructor's development in the combination and using various methods of compression techniques to calm, restrain and control combative subjects and threats when the use of other force options have failed and been exhausted. You will learn articulation; terminology needed to help explain these techniques and how to return to your agency and instructor your staff, administration, without the use of neck compression tactics the Force Protection Team is limited in available force options. This course concentrates on the danger issues regarding the use of these techniques, how to protect your firearm, face, and other important areas of your body to win when your life depends on it the most. Instruction is based on realistic use and applications of control methods in the use of force situations. For successful completion certification of completion is awarded in Neck Compression Tactics. All techniques are compatible with our ground and empty hand control instructor courses. This is NOT a PPCT or LNVR Program and NONE of these techniques will be taught.

Topics covered in the program include:

- Understanding the differences between controlling, compression vs. stoppage
- Knowing your definitions and understanding compression techniques
- Importance of accessing your threat level
- Intergraded force options with hand, clothing and legs
- Application methods from various angles
- Tactical Combinations for disengaging or engaging the subject
- Identifying the danger areas controlling circulation
- Control and Grappling Positioning
- Medical concerns for subject losing control
- How to avoid neck compression techniques
- Positioning of advantage for handling the combatant
- Documentation and use of force options
- Countering Tactics for submission and other body holds
- And much more!

Duration: 1 Day- Basic Course

Duration: 5 Day- Basic Instructor

Tuition: Negotiated at contract

Tuition: Negotiated at contract

Equipment Required: Bring your own instructor and Soldier suit you currently use. The military uniform assigned, roughs or dress clothing and footwear for range tactics and instruction, with whistle and lanyard. Appropriate tactical equipment to include body armor, helmet, gloves and any other gear worn on duty. For plain operations wear appropriate clothing and personal gear consisting of firearms, holsters and for soldier assignments, duty belt with holster issued firearm and back up weapons, 3 magazines for each weapon, body armor, impact weapon, protective equipment, groin protection and mouthpiece, eye safety goggles, towel. Change of clothes.

Visit

www.armatraining.com

1/1/2015